

OGDEN NEWS

Office, 284 Washington Avenue. Circulation Department, 306 Twenty-fifth Street. Ind. Tel. 366. OGDEN, SUNDAY, NOV. 8.

OGDEN MAN TO BE PRESIDENT OF CHURCH'S WESTERN STATES MISSION

John L. Herrick.

John L. Herrick of this city has been appointed president of the western states mission of the Mormon church, with headquarters at Denver, Colo. He will succeed Joseph McRae, who has held the position for the past five or six years, and has been released. Mr. Herrick will leave for Denver the latter part of this week, where he will meet all of the elders of the mission in conference at Denver, after which he will return to Ogden, leaving for Denver about Dec. 15 for good.

John Herrick is one of the most widely known young men in Ogden. For more than twenty years he has been connected with the work of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association in Weber of the Ogden stake will be held at the Ogden tabernacle tomorrow.

The new charge to which Mr. Herrick has been assigned is one of the most important of the church. It is one of the most thoroughly equipped divisions of the church and a finely furnished parsonage awaits the new president.

LITTLE WAIF FINDS HOME

Boy Beats His Way From Massachusetts to Ogden With One Cent of Cash.

One little blue-eyed waif will have a good chance in the future to hold a kindly remembrance of Ogden.

The little fellow, only 12 years of age, came into Ogden yesterday on the baggage train of a Union Pacific train. He was taken off the train here and Probation Officer Jacobs was notified. The officer took the lad before Judge Gunnell. The lad stated that his name was Walter Johnson and that he was 12 years of age and an orphan, his mother having been dead for some years and his father dying in Springfield, Mass., about four months ago, leaving him but a month's salary, which he spent in paying debts, and he then started for Fresno, Cal., where he has relatives. The boy stated that he had been on the road less than three weeks from Springfield to Ogden, and told how kindly he had been treated by the trainmen. He was never put off the train, but, on the contrary, was treated with the utmost kindness, allowed to ride in the caboose, and was given his meals by the train crew and his every want satisfied.

"And I done it all on 1 cent," said he, exhibiting a copper cent, which, he said, was all he had when he started from Springfield. "and still have the cent."

After listening to the boy's story Judge Gunnell sent the lad to E. H. Baker of South Ogden, who has had under his care before the court for the adoption of a good boy.

Police Committee Meets.

There was a meeting of the police committee of the city council last night, but the nature of the proceedings were not revealed. It is understood, however, that the committee had under consideration some recommendations from the chief of police regarding some appointments to be made at the next meeting of the city council.

"The Hit of the Town."

Empire theatre's art living pictures, "Sappho," "Pioneer's Camp" and "Old Army Chest," this week.

Arriving Daily. Popular Prices.

Davis Shoe Co. 238 Main Street

of Mrs. Mary Couch at the home of Mrs. Adie Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moves announce the engagement of their daughter, Dora, to Dr. J. W. Pickock, the wedding to take place some time in the near future.

Mrs. E. A. Littlefield and W. A. Turner entertained at five hundred on Friday afternoon. After the games a luncheon was served and about twenty guests enjoyed the delightful evening.

Miss Irene Scott entertained a dozen of her friends on Wednesday afternoon at a Kensington. The room was decorated with pink and white carnations and chrysanthemums.

Miss Helen Anderson entertained her classmates on Friday evening at her home on Grant avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gay announce the engagement of their daughter, Olive, to William James Salmon. The marriage to take place Nov. 25.

Lee Cheninats' club met with Miss May Cook at her home, 531 Twentieth, last Thursday. The members of the club are second and third year students of French under the tuition of Miss Martin, French teacher at the high school.

The "Marschall" was sung in French, which was the language used during the meeting. Miss Minnie Kiesel assisted the pupils.

Miss Ella Edwards entertained fourteen of her friends on Thursday afternoon. Games and music were the amusements, followed by luncheon.

The Misses Elizabeth Stone and Lily Taylor entertained the members of their card club on Wednesday evening. The game was five hundred and prizes were won by Miss Hilda Barker and Sam Collins.

The club will meet again in two weeks at the home of Miss Ruby Brooks.

Miss Mae Wilson was the recipient of a pleasantly arranged surprise given on Monday evening by about twenty of her young friends. The time was spent at games and music were won by Miss Kate Barker, Miss Daisy Roberts, Fred Nicholls and Bert Johnson.

Mrs. W. C. Camp entertained the members of her sewing circle on Friday afternoon. The club has been recently reorganized and the meeting yesterday was the first one since the reorganization.

The club is Mesdames Will Taylor, W. F. Bossner, Carl Allison, Ned Ballantyne, Frank Mowbray, Fred Gillingham, George Bushnell, M. F. Cunningham, Sam Crawshaw, Johnson and W. C. Camp.

Miss Lizzie Chevalier has given the church a pleasantly arranged evening affair on Thursday, the honor guest being Miss Dora Gray. The game was the game of the evening and prizes were won by Miss Kate Barker, Miss Daisy Roberts, Fred Nicholls and Bert Johnson.

George Woodward of Corinne is in the city.

Horace L. Nebeker is in the city from Logan.

Mrs. Walter Emley has presented her husband to look after the adoption of the first quarterly conference of the Ogden stake will be held at the Ogden tabernacle tomorrow.

The cooks' and waiters' union is making preparations for a banquet to be held Tuesday night of next week.

Clara F. Walker has brought suit for divorce against her husband, W. F. Walker, on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide.

The damage case of Martin Moran vs. Ogden City was decided in the district court yesterday. The jury returning a verdict of no cause of action.

Depot Master George Cunningham is making some very material improvements at the Union depot. He has a large force of men cleaning up the grounds.

Superintendent and Mrs. W. A. Whitney and Chief Dispatcher Harry Bell and wife left yesterday in a private car for trip over the Wyoming division of the Union Pacific.

Zoa D. Chapman has filed suit for divorce against her husband, Robert S. Chapman, on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide. Plaintiff seeks the custody of the three minor children.

The county board of education held a meeting yesterday afternoon and appointed Mrs. McCue, Grace Cassette and George Hooper as teachers. The regular bills were allowed and the preliminaries for the coming school election were arranged, after which the board adjourned.

The city board of education did not meet last night, owing to the fact that a number of matters of importance were on the agenda for the new school year. The board will meet Tuesday or Wednesday of next week, when these matters will be disposed of.

Dix-Logan post, G. A. R., held a meeting Friday night and appointed a committee to look after the adoption of the overflow delegation to the annual encampment at Salt Lake City next year.

The members of the local post say that they will have no objection to providing accommodations for the excess and that they are receiving assurances daily that they will be safe in the city.

For all those which the capital city may be compelled to send here.

A PIECE OF BALLAST.

Chancellor Day Thinks Taft Will Steady Things.

Boston, Nov. 7.—In an interview tonight, Chancellor James R. Day of Syracuse university gave his opinion of William H. Taft and John D. Archbold. The chancellor is on board the steamer Celtic now on its way from New York to Mediterranean ports.

Chancellor Day said:

"Now that Mr. Taft is elected, I don't expect to see the attacks of the present administration upon the business interests of the country. The day of the big stick is over."

"I expect Mr. Taft to steady things. I think he is a great piece of ballast. I expect to see the country come back quickly into rational conditions."

When the subject of the Standard Oil correspondence read during the campaign was mentioned, the chancellor said:

"John D. Archbold is a remarkably liberal-minded man. I have many of his letters I wish I could make public. Some of them contain discussion of the labor question and the laboring man that are most wise in suggestions. The great trouble with the Standard Oil company is that it has been too close-mouthed. I have told Mr. Archbold that such a policy was a mistake, and I think he has come to see that I was right."

PLAYERS FATALLY INJURED.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 7.—Joe Daugherty, playing left guard on the Evansville Y. M. C. A. team, was fatally injured in a game at Henderson, Ky., this afternoon with the Y. M. C. A. team of that place. He suffered a concussion of the spine, and is paralyzed from the heart down.

ACROSS THE DESERT.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 7.—Four cars, carrying two men each, started at midnight from the corner of Spring and Second streets for Phoenix, Ariz., in the first automobile race ever attempted across the California and Arizona deserts. With good luck the cars are expected to get into Phoenix before dark Monday.

"The Hit of the Town."

Empire theatre's art living pictures, "Sappho," "Pioneer's Camp" and "Old Army Chest," this week.

The Woman's Relief Corps will give a farewell party next Wednesday in honor

TAYLOR MAY BE RETURNED

Election of Marshall in Indiana May Reopen the Goebel Murder Trial.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Arthur Goebel, brother of the late William Goebel, conferred here today with Commonwealth's Attorney Robert B. Franklin with reference to requesting Governor Wilson to issue requisition papers upon Governor-elect Marshall of Indiana, after he takes his seat, for the return of W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley for trial upon the indictments pending against them in Franklin county circuit court, charging them with complicity in the murder of William Goebel.

Miss Helen Anderson entertained her classmates on Friday evening at her home on Grant avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gay announce the engagement of their daughter, Olive, to William James Salmon. The marriage to take place Nov. 25.

Lee Cheninats' club met with Miss May Cook at her home, 531 Twentieth, last Thursday. The members of the club are second and third year students of French under the tuition of Miss Martin, French teacher at the high school.

The "Marschall" was sung in French, which was the language used during the meeting. Miss Minnie Kiesel assisted the pupils.

Miss Ella Edwards entertained fourteen of her friends on Thursday afternoon. Games and music were the amusements, followed by luncheon.

The Misses Elizabeth Stone and Lily Taylor entertained the members of their card club on Wednesday evening. The game was five hundred and prizes were won by Miss Hilda Barker and Sam Collins.

The club will meet again in two weeks at the home of Miss Ruby Brooks.

Miss Mae Wilson was the recipient of a pleasantly arranged surprise given on Monday evening by about twenty of her young friends. The time was spent at games and music were won by Miss Kate Barker, Miss Daisy Roberts, Fred Nicholls and Bert Johnson.

Mrs. W. C. Camp entertained the members of her sewing circle on Friday afternoon. The club has been recently reorganized and the meeting yesterday was the first one since the reorganization.

The club is Mesdames Will Taylor, W. F. Bossner, Carl Allison, Ned Ballantyne, Frank Mowbray, Fred Gillingham, George Bushnell, M. F. Cunningham, Sam Crawshaw, Johnson and W. C. Camp.

Miss Lizzie Chevalier has given the church a pleasantly arranged evening affair on Thursday, the honor guest being Miss Dora Gray. The game was the game of the evening and prizes were won by Miss Kate Barker, Miss Daisy Roberts, Fred Nicholls and Bert Johnson.

George Woodward of Corinne is in the city.

Horace L. Nebeker is in the city from Logan.

Mrs. Walter Emley has presented her husband to look after the adoption of the first quarterly conference of the Ogden stake will be held at the Ogden tabernacle tomorrow.

The cooks' and waiters' union is making preparations for a banquet to be held Tuesday night of next week.

Clara F. Walker has brought suit for divorce against her husband, W. F. Walker, on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide.

The damage case of Martin Moran vs. Ogden City was decided in the district court yesterday. The jury returning a verdict of no cause of action.

Depot Master George Cunningham is making some very material improvements at the Union depot. He has a large force of men cleaning up the grounds.

Superintendent and Mrs. W. A. Whitney and Chief Dispatcher Harry Bell and wife left yesterday in a private car for trip over the Wyoming division of the Union Pacific.

Zoa D. Chapman has filed suit for divorce against her husband, Robert S. Chapman, on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide. Plaintiff seeks the custody of the three minor children.

The county board of education held a meeting yesterday afternoon and appointed Mrs. McCue, Grace Cassette and George Hooper as teachers. The regular bills were allowed and the preliminaries for the coming school election were arranged, after which the board adjourned.

The city board of education did not meet last night, owing to the fact that a number of matters of importance were on the agenda for the new school year. The board will meet Tuesday or Wednesday of next week, when these matters will be disposed of.

Dix-Logan post, G. A. R., held a meeting Friday night and appointed a committee to look after the adoption of the overflow delegation to the annual encampment at Salt Lake City next year.

The members of the local post say that they will have no objection to providing accommodations for the excess and that they are receiving assurances daily that they will be safe in the city.

For all those which the capital city may be compelled to send here.

A PIECE OF BALLAST.

Chancellor Day Thinks Taft Will Steady Things.

Boston, Nov. 7.—In an interview tonight, Chancellor James R. Day of Syracuse university gave his opinion of William H. Taft and John D. Archbold. The chancellor is on board the steamer Celtic now on its way from New York to Mediterranean ports.

Chancellor Day said:

"Now that Mr. Taft is elected, I don't expect to see the attacks of the present administration upon the business interests of the country. The day of the big stick is over."

"I expect Mr. Taft to steady things. I think he is a great piece of ballast. I expect to see the country come back quickly into rational conditions."

When the subject of the Standard Oil correspondence read during the campaign was mentioned, the chancellor said:

"John D. Archbold is a remarkably liberal-minded man. I have many of his letters I wish I could make public. Some of them contain discussion of the labor question and the laboring man that are most wise in suggestions. The great trouble with the Standard Oil company is that it has been too close-mouthed. I have told Mr. Archbold that such a policy was a mistake, and I think he has come to see that I was right."

PLAYERS FATALLY INJURED.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 7.—Joe Daugherty, playing left guard on the Evansville Y. M. C. A. team, was fatally injured in a game at Henderson, Ky., this afternoon with the Y. M. C. A. team of that place. He suffered a concussion of the spine, and is paralyzed from the heart down.

ACROSS THE DESERT.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 7.—Four cars, carrying two men each, started at midnight from the corner of Spring and Second streets for Phoenix, Ariz., in the first automobile race ever attempted across the California and Arizona deserts. With good luck the cars are expected to get into Phoenix before dark Monday.

"The Hit of the Town."

Empire theatre's art living pictures, "Sappho," "Pioneer's Camp" and "Old Army Chest," this week.

The Woman's Relief Corps will give a farewell party next Wednesday in honor

REUNION AT ST. MARY'S

In response to the invitation recently addressed to the alumnae of St. Mary's academy a large number of the graduates returned to their alma mater Saturday afternoon for their regular reunion. Enjoyable as these yearly gatherings always are, the reunion exercises for many long years.

After visiting the old familiar places in and about the academy the members assembled in the library, where the president, Miss Frances Phillips '81, called the meeting to order for the usual business affairs of the society.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, all repaired to the banquet hall, where a most elegant lunch was served. The room and tables were very tastefully decorated in the alumnae colors, gold and blue, and the autumnal flowers in glowing profusion turned the hall into a picture to the years that are gone, and each class, of course, had reminiscences of its own.

The next feature of the reunion was a program rendered by the students in the general assembly hall. The feature of this little program was the presentation of the class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

The class of 1908, the first number of the year. This paper is edited by the graduating class, and its reading is usually one of the most interesting events of the evening.

a sly hit among the locals, and in the original comic songs and parodies, that bore the wittier themes along on a stream of interest and amusement that terminated all too soon in a "good night" chorus.

This thoroughly enjoyable production had a most charming setting in the midst of a delightful musical program. Miss Thompson, the GUMS, ALLAYS all St. Mary's audiences, was heard in Mendelssohn's "Concerto in E," on the violin. The numerous chromatic and octave passages found in this solo were exquisitely brought forth. She was ably accompanied by Miss Maud Taylor at the piano. In response to an encore, "Edwards' Long Song" was given by the little violinist.

A piano solo, "Denora," by Hoffman, was well rendered by Miss Katie Chippman, one of St. Mary's aspiring pianists. The sweet voice of Miss Catherine Brennan was heard in "The Bee's Courtship," by D'Harlet, a very pretty and taking song. Being called out again, she sang "Love is a Bubble" with her usual grace and charm.

A vocal duet, "Tell Me, My Bird," by the Misses A. York and A. Jacobson, was also highly enjoyed by the hearers. The vocal students brought the program to a close by a couplet of choruses, "Benedictus's Stream" and "The Goblins' Gilt You," which were listened to with the genuine appreciation always accorded to the class singing heard at St. Mary's.

At about 9 o'clock the guests descended to the recreation floor, where the rest of the evening was passed most enjoyably in a round of games and pastimes arranged and carried out by the girls of the first commercial class, who expect to win their diplomas in June.

Thus the alumnae reunion of 1908 was brought to a happy close and when the hour came to go it was with evident reluctance at the "good nights" at last were said, and there were many "au revoirs" for the next reunion.

At about 9 o'clock the guests descended to the recreation floor, where the rest of the evening was passed most enjoyably in a round of games and pastimes arranged and carried out by the girls of the first commercial class, who expect to win their diplomas in June.

Thus the alumnae reunion of 1908 was brought to a happy close and when the hour came to go it was with evident reluctance at the "good nights" at last were said, and there were many "au revoirs" for the next reunion.

At about 9 o'clock the guests descended to the recreation floor, where the rest of the evening was passed most enjoyably in a round of games and pastimes arranged and carried out by the girls of the first commercial class, who expect to win their diplomas in June.

Thus the alumnae reunion of 1908 was brought to a happy close and when the hour came to go it was with evident reluctance at the "good nights" at last were said, and there were many "au revoirs" for the next reunion.

At about 9 o'clock the guests descended to the recreation floor, where the rest of the evening was passed most enjoyably in a round of games and pastimes arranged and carried out by the girls of the first commercial class, who expect to win their diplomas in June.

Thus the alumnae reunion of 1908 was brought to a happy close and when the hour came to go it was with evident reluctance at the "good nights" at last were said, and there were many "au revoirs" for the next reunion.

At about 9 o'clock the guests descended to the recreation floor, where the rest of the evening was passed most enjoyably in a round of games and pastimes arranged and carried out by the girls of the first commercial class, who expect to win their diplomas in June.

Thus the alumnae reunion of 1908 was brought to a happy close and when the hour came to go it was with evident reluctance at the "good nights" at last were said, and there were many "au revoirs" for the next reunion.

At about 9 o'clock the guests descended to the recreation floor, where the rest of the evening was passed most enjoyably in a round of games and pastimes arranged and carried out by the girls of the first commercial class, who expect to win their diplomas in June.

Thus the alumnae reunion of 1908 was brought to a happy close and when the hour came to go it was with evident reluctance at the "good nights" at last were said, and there were many "au revoirs" for the next reunion.

At about 9 o'clock the guests descended to the recreation floor, where the rest of the evening was passed most enjoyably in a round of games and pastimes arranged and carried out by the girls of the first commercial class, who expect to win their diplomas in June.

Thus the alumnae reunion of 1908 was brought to a happy close and when the hour came to go it was with evident reluctance at the "good nights" at last were said, and there were many "au revoirs" for the next reunion.

At about 9 o'clock the guests descended to the recreation floor, where the rest of the evening was passed most enjoyably in a round of games and pastimes arranged and carried out by the girls of the first commercial class, who expect to win their diplomas in June.

Thus the alumnae reunion of 1908 was brought to a happy close and when the hour came to go it was with evident reluctance at the "good nights" at last were said, and there were many "au revoirs" for the next reunion.

At about